First Announcement

International Scientific and Expert Conference of the International TEAM society

Idea for establishment of International TEAM Society was initiated in year 2009. The TEAM Society founders are Faculty of Mechanical Engineering and Automation, Kecskeméti Főiskola, Hungary, Faculty of Mechanical Engineering in Slavonski Brod, University of Osijek and University of Applied sciences of Slavonski Brod.

TEAM Society offers a new identity for Conferences by joining together, networking the institution and changing the forms and importance of the events, since TEAM conferences are organised in the framework of international cooperation and by changing the country and host institution. TEAM Conference is organised to gather scientists and experts of European countries in fields of Technique, Education, Agriculture and Management (the first letter of fields are acronym TEAM) and it is based on results of fruitful international cooperation between institutions in recent years.
